

Experiences of African American Mobility Since the Civil Rights Movement

Programme
May 6th 2022

9H - WELCOMING OF THE PARTICIPANTS AND AUDIENCE

9H20 - CONFERENCE OPENING

9H30 - PANEL #1 - SPORT AND MOBILITY

Chair : Marie Assaf (EHESS)

François René Julliard (Université de Nanterre)

The First Great Migration and the Emergence of an African-American Olympic Elite.

Sarah Harakat (Sorbonne Université)

« That 6-foot-8 Roxbury Monster on Your Team » : What Media Coverage of African American Athletes in White Suburban High Schools Reveals about the Politics of Race and Education in Metropolitan Boston (1966 - 1996)

Nathalie Loison (Université Paris-Est Créteil)

The Rise and Fall of the Token "Cablinasian":

the Social Mobility of Golfer Tiger Wood in "Post-Racial" America.

11H00 - PANEL #2 - SOCIAL AND GEOGRAPHIC IMMOBILITY

Chair : Marion Marchet (Sorbonne Université)

Carla Toquet (Université de Nanterre)

Young African American Men in « Men We Reaped» by Jesmyn Ward are as mobile as the cars they own : very stationary.

Nicolas Raulin (EHESS)

Stuck in place? The Selectivity of African American Migration to the South and the Metropolitan Area of Atlanta since the 1970s.

Tanya Golash-Boza (University of California, Merced)

Before Gentrification: Race and Dis/Investment in Washington, DC.

12H30 - LUNCH

14H - PLENARY CONFERENCE

Natoschia Scruggs (New Jersey City University)

Newark, City of Dreams: Black Americans, the Great Migration & The Post-Civil Rights Era in Newark, New Jersey.

15H - CLOSING REMARKS